

Mesolithic

Walking & cycle route

The Mesolithic route caters for both walking and cycling enthusiasts.

The terrain is ideal for cyclists as smooth surfaces and beautiful flora make for the perfect bike ride. Shortcuts offer everyone the chance to enjoy this wonderful area of Lough Boora Discovery Park.

You will be spoiled for choice for picnic spots, there are three picnic areas and the Pavilion along the way.

The archaeological site at Lough Boora Discovery Park is one of the most important archaeological finds in Irish history, the site was discovered in 1977.

For wildlife lovers make sure to keep your eyes peeled as an abundance of wildlife have made this route their home including the grey partridge along with many other species.

While on this route you will be passing through the grey partridge conservation area and it is important to keep dogs on a lead at all times.
